

If the current radio broadcasting system isn't meeting the needs and wants of the public, why not have a choice as to what to listen to. How much more goverment interference does the Amercian worker have to put up with. Are we still the Land of the Free or not? Fucking MacCarthyism all over again.